- 7.2 The Academy Council will adopt and comply with all policies, protocols and procedures of the Catholic Multi-Academy Trust Company, the Bishop and the Diocese as communicated to the Academy Council from time to time.
- 7.3 Except for the Foundation Directors and Foundation Governors, the other Directors and members of the Academy Council have a duty to act independently and not to act as agents of those who may have appointed them. All Directors and members of the Academy Council will act with integrity, objectivity and honesty in the best interests of the Catholic Multi-Academy Trust Company and the Academy and shall be open about decisions made and be prepared to justify those decisions except insofar as any matter may be considered confidential. Foundation Governors shall always act in furtherance of their undertaking to the Bishop and the Diocesan Trustees to preserve and develop the Catholic character of the Academy, and the Catholic Multi-Academy Trust Company, at all times.

- 7.4 The Academy Council shall comply with any inspections by or on behalf of the Directors and any denominational inspections pursuant to section 48 of the Education Act 2005 and any additional canonical inspections and visitations of the Bishop and any person appointed by him for the purpose of ensuring that the Academy is being conducted in accordance with canon law and is following the practices and teachings of the Catholic Church and in order to allow the Bishop to assess how well the Academy is being managed in light of the additional responsibilities and expectations of schools which are academies.
- 7.5 If, in the view of the Directors, one of the following situations arises, then the Directors may resolve to remove some or all of the powers and obligations delegated to the Academy Council by this Scheme of Delegation:

 - 7.5.2 Standards and performance are low, are likely to be assessed as low and/or are likely to remain so without intervention;
 - 7.5.3 There has been a serious breakdown in management or governance which is prejudicial to standards of performance or breaches the Catholic Multi-Academy Trust Company's policies and procedures;
 - 7.5.4 The safety of pupils and staff is threatened; or
 - 7.5.5 Safeguarding procedures are inadequate.
- 7.6 The Academy Council shall work closely with and shall promptly implement any advice or recommendations made by the directors in the event that intervention is either threatened or is carried out by the Secretary of State and the Directors expressly reserve the unfettered right to review or remove any power or responsibility conferred on the Academy Council under this Scheme of Delegation in such circumstances.

8 REVIEW OF THE SCHEME OF DELEGATION

- 8.1 This Scheme of Delegation shall operate from the Effective Date in respect of the Academy.
- 8.2 The Directors have the absolute discretion to review and amend this Scheme of Delegation at least annually and to alter any provisions of it with the prior written consent of the Bishop (on the advice of the Diocese).
- 8.3 In considering any material changes to this Scheme of Delegation the Directors shall have regard to and give due consideration to any views of the Academy Council and shall comply with any guidance/requirements of the Bishop and consider any guidance published by the Catholic Education Service.

Appendix 1 to the Scheme of Delegation

Table of Roles and Responsibilities

Responsibilities of the Diocesan Bishop and the Diocesan Education Service (Vicariate for Education)

Canon law (Church law) provides that each diocesan bishop has strategic responsibility to commission sufficient school places to meet the needs of baptised Catholic children resident in his area. A Catholic school is one which is recognised as such by the diocesan bishop. Canon 803 provides the definition of a Catholic school. Canon 803§1 provides that a school is Catholic if:

- (a) It is controlled² by a diocese or religious order; or
- (b) It is acknowledged in a written document as Catholic by the diocesan bishop.

All Catholic schools are subject to the jurisdiction of the diocesan bishop, even those that are not in diocesan trusteeship. Canon 806§1 provides:

“The Diocesan Bishop has the right to watch over and inspect Catholic schools in his territory...and has the right to issue directives concerning the general inspection of Catholic schools...those who are in charge of Catholic schools are to ensure, under the supervision of the local Ordinary³, that the formation given in them, including its academic standards, are at least as outstanding as that in other schools in the area”.

In respect of his schools, which includes academies, the bishop has the legal right to appoint (and remove) an overall majority of directors and governors, who are known as foundation directors and foundation governors. In addition to all the other legal responsibilities of the academy trust company (for academies) and the governing body (for voluntary aided schools), the law recognises that foundation directors/governors are appointed specifically to ensure:

- That the Catholic character of the school is preserved;
- That the school is conducted in accordance with its trust deed; and

² The ‘control’ specified in canon 803 is normally established where the diocese or religious order owns the school and appoints the governing body (or at least a majority of it).

³ ‘Ordinary’ includes the Diocesan Bishop and those, such as Vicars General and Episcopal Vicars, exercising Ordinary jurisdiction on his behalf as well as to describe the relevant Religious Superior in respect of religious order schools, and this also includes their respective representative officers.

- That the religious education curriculum is in accordance with the bishop’s policy for his diocese, based on the Bishops’ Conference Curriculum Directory.

The diocesan bishop, acting through his Diocesan Schools Commissioner (Director of Education), is responsible for:

- The provision and future development of excellent Catholic education throughout the diocese
- The oversight of high educational standards, progress and outcomes in all diocesan schools
- The appointment, development and training of foundation directors and governors and their removal
- The inspection of religious life of schools and RE (section 48 inspections)
- The development of Catholic teachers and leaders (and all appointments should be made in accordance with diocesan protocol)
- The oversight of school buildings/estate and capital projects
- Planning of school place provision
- Engaging with the Regional Director and Ofsted
- Maintaining links with the Catholic Education Service and the government

The CES model Scheme of Delegation, more particularly this table at Appendix I, is modelled on a ‘traditional’ Catholic Multi-Academy Trust Company trust structure. ‘Traditional’ for the purposes of this document is used to describe a situation where there is substantial delegation to the Academy Council level to make decisions, although such decisions must be in line with the overall strategic vision set by the directors. The model does, however, provide for certain functions to be undertaken by a senior executive leadership team. By comparison, some Catholic Multi-Academy Trust Companies will delegate very little to their Academy Councils and will retain all decision-making powers and/or delegate to a senior executive leadership team. It is envisaged that the bigger the Catholic Multi-Academy Trust Company, the larger the senior executive leadership team will be and, as such, the board of directors will delegate to the senior executive leadership team and not down to the academy level. This model would leave the Academy Council free to concentrate on such things as educational standards at the academy and community relations.

In any event, the optimum structure, regardless of size or composition of the Catholic Multi-Academy Trust Company is for each ‘layer’ of the governance structure (being the board of directors, the senior executive leadership, any regional boards or hubs⁴, Academy Councils and the headteachers as may be appropriate) feeds into the layer above so that the board of directors is free to carry out its strategic functions and is not involved in the operational or day to day aspects of running the academies within the Catholic Multi Academy Trust Company.

⁴ As a Catholic Multi-Academy Trust Company grows and accepts additional academies, the ‘traditional’ governance structure may no longer be fit for purpose, particularly because the level of information being produced for review and action by the directors may be too in-depth and require significant amounts of time and expertise to get to the headline information. In such a case, it is expected that the Catholic Multi-Academy Trust Company will look at ways of addressing this by altering its governance structure. Often this is done by introducing regional hubs so that the academies in the Catholic Multi-Academy Trust Company are split into, for example, geographical groupings. Each grouping may then have a regional board that would sit between the Academy Council of each academy and the senior executive leadership and whose function it would be to assist and support each AC but also to collate information and statistics, to analyse

It is envisaged that the CES will be producing additional tables for Appendix I to reflect different governance structures as it becomes apparent that such structures are considered a successful model for governing a Catholic Multi-Academy Trust Company.

The CEO will lead and assume accountability for decisions taken by the team.

In this table, the term ‘company’ shall mean the Catholic Multi-Academy Trust Company’.

In this table, the term ‘headteacher’ shall mean the headteacher employed in the academy and reference to ‘headteachers’ shall mean each of the headteachers employed in each of the academies in the company.
